Welcome to the TN Research Request Tool

As an attorney, all you do is submit the research request and track its progress. The request is automatically routed to a law school and assigned to a law student. You are notified when the student has results to report to you.

The following research requests may require some action on your part.

Denied Requests

The following request was denied.

Select the request to view the Denial Reason or Rejection Reason. You may be able to make changes to your request and resubmit the request.
